THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKEY.

They will cure the above diseases in ninety nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, [illegible] ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity [illegible] Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics [illegible] and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of [illegible] put up in plethoric bottles [illegible] under the modest appellation of Bitters [illegible] only aggravate disease and leave the [illegible] in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, [illegible] stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American [illegible] reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,

LAWYERS,

PHYSICIANS

CITIZENS

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?

Do you want a good appetite?

Do you want to build up your constitution?

Do you want to feel well?

Do you want to get rid of nervousness?

Do you want energy?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J Newton Brown D D Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general [illegible] I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend [illegible] for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J NEWTON BROWN

PHILADELPHIA June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters put up in quart bottles compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind and the desire for Liquor is created and kept up and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS' AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters":

PHILADELPHIA August 23 1862

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr Malone, restored to life.

TUESDAY MORNING OCT 1[illegible] 186[illegible]

The Great Crisis

The Nation has reached a point in the rebellion, when it must decide the solemn issue of its life We are in the moral crisis of the war, and nothing less than the whole intelligence and honesty of the people can safely carry us through it The duty which they owe to themselves and their country must be considered and neither false principles in disguise or old party watchwords ought to be allowed to lead them from the straight and onward course which is in strict accordance with the demands of patriotism There must be no fellowship or sympathy with treason or its apologists or defenders No support, direct or indirect must be given to those who have organized a resistance to the Government the managers of which in carrying on their opposition have repeatedly declared their sympathy with the South, and their hope that it may succeed in its infamous design to break up the Union Observe the language of Vallandigham, who said in Congress, and it is only like what he has constantly said whenever he has spoken during the war

Then, Sir, I am not a Southern man either —although in this most unholy and unconstitutional crusade against the South in the midst of the invasion, arson, insurrection and murder to which she has been subject and with which she is still threatened—with the torch of the incendiary and the dagger of the assassin suspended over her — my most cordial sympathies are with her

What is this but treason, the most intense vile and ungodly? He calls the efforts of the Government to suppress the rebellion and save the life of the Republic invasion arson, insurrection and murder our officers and soldiers who at their country's call have bravely gone forth to peril and to death are declared to be "incendiaries and assassins" Such a traitor is made the candidate of a party in Ohio, which in the name of Democracy asks his election! Such a traitor has [illegible] and admirers among men who call themselves loyal Democrats in other States, who, because of their ardent attachment to party issues, now dissipated and annihilated, express hopes of his success Do [illegible] remember that, if he were elected, [illegible] of Ohio would be put morally and effectually in alliance with the rebel Sympathy with him and a desire for [illegible] are but a step from armed rebellion They are moral treason The majority of the people of the seceded States, were not, [illegible] months before the war begun, so near the awful gulf of disunion, as to day are those who permit themselves to desire and [illegible] the success of an organization which [illegible] the name of Democracy is steadily [illegible]ning and destroying the loyal sentiment of the North, and preparing to sacrifice the nation to the revived pro slavery party, and its Southern masters

When a true Democrat two years ago, wrote his order, "if any man attempt to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot,"—he struck a chord, that thrilled in every patriotic heart But do democratic conventions which nominate such men as Vallandigham, and pass peace resolutions, ever respond to that sentiment? Is not the tendency of their action and their votes to degrade and defile and to pull down the banner of our liberties? Is it not clear that these pretended conservatives of constitutional rights would cheerfully humble the proud emblem of our power and our glory at the feet of red handed traitors? The Ohio rebel declared, when at the South last June, that "his election depended on the fate of Vicksburg" If the Stars and Stripes should then be covered with defeat and shame, his victory was sure, but if they should float in new glory—again washed and consecrated in the pure blood of patriots—upon that conquered citadel of rebellion, he must be defeated His success depended upon the country's misery and sacrifice. Can true men—we care not what they politically term themselves—can true hearted patriots regard the possible election of such a traitor, with any emotions save those of alarm and loathing? Yet we hear men from whom better things were expected—some of them office holders under this very Administration, which is wearily struggling to carry on the war—say that it would be better and rather to be preferred than the success of an Abolitionist and this too when it must be apparent to every thinking citizen, that such a result in Ohio, or any where else in the present state of the country brought about by the schemes of the Peace Democracy, must give strength to the rebellion, add to our National distress prolong the war and possibly precipitate revolution at the North with all its havoc and misery

Will not Democrats will not every man remember that country ought always to be above party and that a political triumph which brings National defeat is a fearful curse? Let the influence of all be on the side of patriotism, and when the war is over as it soon will be, if the North is united in its prosecution, then if such things must need be, there will be time enough and scope enough for party organization and for active, earnest party operations

Matters at Boise

BANNOCK CITY, Sept 2[illegible], 1863

EDS OREGONIAN:

Having promised more than one the correspondent is pleased to take a sitting and adjust his quill this the liveliest morning of the season, and dot an item or two that may be of interest to the readers of the OREGONIAN We of the Basin have lately been the recipients of a few fine showers of rain which have been very acceptable but the one of last evening and this morning has been far the most agreeable. It commenced to rain about ten o'clock last night and notwithstanding the shaky roofs leaking here and there, on beds goods and wares met with a cordial welcome from all At daybreak this morning thunder rolled its peal and lightning flashed across the mountain tops and through the passes, while the musical drops pattered on the roofs, in quick succession they followed one another until we had a real old fashioned storm for about two hours this continued when the sun appeared and rising in all its majesty drove the clouds away and finally terminated in a clear beautiful day

This rain does good in many respects it settles the dust purifies the air and may increase the supply of water, which last is most ardently hoped for The woods that have been black for weeks past, with a dense smoky fog appear to be clearing up and we may now see far where before we could see nothing Sickness will not be so common among us and all in all, we have great reason to be thankful for these refreshing showers The days have been very hot and as the enterprise of bringing snow into town as a substitute for ice, has been abandoned, we have felt the need of something cooling often The water we use in drinking, etc, is not of the best quality at any rate At night one needs all his blankets, and on several occasions lately, while your correspondent was mining frost has covered the ground to such an extent that he was forcibly reminded of chill November in Minnesota

Considerable excitement has been manifest in this city for the last two weeks on account of the conduct of one S C Hoyt who has been running pretty high on the swindle The facts as near as I am able to learn them from first to last are about as follows On the 26th of August John Balanche came into town with a heavy freight of goods but had no money to take them from the train S C Hoyt advanced him the freight, and afterwards Balanche sold them to him for cost and carriage on fourteen days time Hoyt failed to come to time, and kept Balanche off by fair promises until he could do so no longer Finally one week ago last Thursday Hoyt represented to Balanche that he was going to a ranche seven miles below town to secure some flour and that he would return by four o'clock and pay Balanche $1 500 He left on foot, but when he arrived at Buena Vista Bar he mounted a horse in readiness and skedaddled Balanche learned of this and the following evening it came out that Mr Hoyt was not only behind largely with Balanche but also with several others and in a short time all things were arranged for a chase, and $2 000 offered for the gentleman Four men started in pursuit and came up to Hoyt on Burnt river Before his suspicions were aroused he told his captors he was going below and would be glad to have their company After his capture he offered them $1 500 for a release; but they brought him back again five days from the time he left I don't know whether he deserved summary justice or not. He is at present at large, and it puzzles the best lawyers in town to worm out the right thread of the knotty case It has been shown on examination that he has frequently purchased goods and the same day disposed of them at heavy sacrifices He sets up that he went for the purpose of obtaining goods and shows what he says are receipts for the purchase of bacon, flour, etc, obtained on the road These receipts are written in pencil in his pocket memoranda and look very much alike, although signed by different names It is shown that he was owing Blanche $3,400 Reynolds, $1 000, Smythers $700, Hurd $500, Dr Overbeck $150 Brown & Martin, $288 his clerk, Mr Graves several hundred, as well as others, in all about $8,000 It is proved that he carried away five purses, and that they contained about $9,000 in dust When he was taken he told the officers where they could find two purses in a haystack They found one, but at the place pointed out for the other none could be found, and from the appearance of things it would seem that some person had taken it as the stack showed signs of hay being pulled out about the place I do not know how much money he brought back with him, and it seems the number of apparent falsehoods and deceptive schemes laid by him to further entrap his creditors are nothing, for he is about town "arranging matters," and it is a question how the case will terminate Other items are to be taken up when this one is disposed of

Mining is about the same as when I wrote last An attempt was made on Tuesday, by a certain few to lay over their claims in this district to give them a chance to visit the land of big red apples, but it was a failure The meeting was held on Buena Vista Bar called at a time when most men are supposed to be at work, and the originators thought they had a good thing, but it so turned out that it was an immense meeting, and the proposition was voted down instanter They are bound to represent, one day in seven and many of these claims will be left by present holders, as the inducement is not great enough for them to stay by till spring In Eureka District where my interests are claims are not workable with less than a sluice head of water on them, and that covers nine tenths of them A person "jumping" claims there runs some risk but here and at Placer, any one can jump a claim that is not represented even though there be no show for water now or henceforth and it is expected there will be considerable of that business done

Bannock City now supports a printing establishment, and it has been announced by prospectus that on Tuesday next the first issue of the Boise News will appear independent in all things, and on Saturday following the Idaho Democrat, a campaign Democratic paper, will "come out" The Democrats have nominated J M Cannady for Delegate, and the Republicans Gov Wallace The day of election I believe has not yet been set

No new excitement of any note has come up since my last letter, except the Snake river above Fort Hall and parties are still leaving for that section but I am unable to learn any definite news concerning it, only that they say the gold is coarse water plenty, and grub cheap —three very distinct and important requisites in a gold country but who they are I cannot learn I suppose it should be good at all events for it is a long way there

A quartz ledge has been discovered near Bannock—said to be very good In an attempt to learn all about it I [illegible] the gentleman to whom he had taken a specimen but we could not find it there So I know but little about it except by rumor Our hunting after that ledge, reminds me of a joke on Comstock Last Summer, a party near Feather river (South Boise) found a very rich ledge as he supposed of gold and silver mixed He broke off a fine specimen and exhibited it about the camp when Comstock happened to see it C immediately made the discoverer an offer for an interest, which was accepted Paid over horses, money etc and they set out prospecting They soon found the place and took some more specimens Afterwards Comstock took [illegible] and came to Bannock during [illegible] the party found the ledge took specimens—and in getting them rolled the rock down the hill When Comstock returned he sought his prize but sought it in vain and has yet so far as heard from failed to trace his rich ledge farther than the single rock that was rolled down the hill People are beginning to wake up now a days when quartz is struck and before one can say Jack Robinson feet are staked off, till you can't rest

Vegetables begin to come into market pretty freely and bring a good price Onions [illegible] to 40c; potatoes 20 [illegible] wholesale I saw three loads from Salt Lake, but the main supply is from Grand Ronde and Walla Walla Those from Salt Lake are small potatoes, compared to the lots from Walla Walla Salt Lake flour sells at $20 per cwt

Capt Crawford has arrived and sold out the escort train, at Fort Boise I hear nothing of any Indian troubles and the supposition is, Mr Snake does not wish any further trouble On Mill Creek an old squaw has been seen several times by the miners at work there and this with the infant Indian owned by Kelly and now performing in Kelly's Varieties (as the darkey says) the one we found on Moore's creek is all I know of in the vicinity

Yours INCOG

SHREWD CHAPS IN DIXIE —The Richmond Examiner of Aug 27th says

The very unusual spectacle of wagon loads of new wheat going into the basements of retired residences occupied by a particular class of the extortioner and speculator has been noticeable for several days past in this city This wheat has been purchased of the farmers at a good round sum and is now to be hoarded with the expectation and intention that prices shall be quadruple before it shall be put into the market again Was ever any exhibition of human depravity so despicable? Had these contemptible wretches the power they would bottle the universal air and retail it at so much per bottle They invite famine and want and are particularly grieved that the cry of the widow and orphan is not yet heard in the land Their wail for bread would be sweet music in their ears for they would then reap the benefit of their hidden stores of grain Out on such, we say! The lash of public indignation and scorn will sooner or later drive them from the community With their filled stores they are heaping up wrath that will one day fall upon and overwhelm them These "peculiar people," not content with purchasing all the salable real estate in Richmond and thus securing an investment of their Confederate money which they so much dread have now turned their attention to a monopoly of the staff of life, and it is stored away in the cellars and other uses until the scarcity they seek to create brings them an advance enormous enough to satisfy their greedy souls The Government officers while making their impressments, should remember this fact We trust there is a book of remembrance kept for all such in this world, as well as in the next

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES —A New York correspondent of the Marysville Appeal, thus writes with reference to the coming canvass

If any evidence were wanted to prove that the Democrats are not terribly in earnest in endeavoring to put down the rebellion, their scrambling for office is evidence enough Amid the shouts of victory on the Mississippi and in Pennsylvania and while the distant thunder of the artillery of Rosecrans and Gilmore can be almost heard summoning every energy of the nation to the final contest comes a Call for a meeting of the Democratic National (!) Central Committee' to contrive plans for holding another Democratic Convention The members of one party are the soldiers and sailors of the Union and the loyal citizens of the Nation. The members of the other are a set of political hucksters who have always hoped that Southern leaders might use them as stepping stones to get to power The President of the United States of America calls the members of one party to rally around the Star Spangled Banner and unite in defense of Union and Liberty A Jew broker by the name of Belmont call the members of the other party together to try and elect a Democratic President. Just at present McClellan, Seymour, Vallandigham and Fernando Wood are the chief candidates among the Democracy; and on the other side I hear enthusiastic supporters of Grant, Banks Butler, Lincoln, Dickinson Holt and Andy Johnson, while a few quiet but effective workers are pulling the wires for Mr Seward It is impossible to foretell anything about the canvass but just at present Gen N P Banks seems to have the lead

A LADY DRAFTED —One of the conscripts drawn recently in this city is a Mrs Slack, who says she has no wish to furnish a substitute Since the draft she has visited Gettysburg where, guided by our soldiers and some of the secesh prisoners, she spent a week in examining the battle ground, hospitals &c Mrs Slack is now ready to don the uniform, and take position in line! She deserves and should receive a Major's commission The manner in which Mrs Slack was enrolled was peculiar She has her name "Slack" with her initials, upon the door of her residence The enrolling officer went to the house, and finding none of the occupants within took down the name on the door, plate enrolling it in the first class —Boston Traveller

A SOUTHERNER ON COPPERHEADS —The Oakland News of October 1st says

Happening to get into a conversation with a Virginian in the war the other day at the City Hotel, he remarked that he was a Union man, but being a Southerner his sympathies were on that side He said he despised a man that wouldn't stand up for his birth place. I don't blame the Northern people for sticking up for their side and I have ten times more respect to day for a Black Republican than for a Northern Copperhead ' The fun of the joke is this same gentleman was the candidate of the Copperheads of Alameda county for a certain office at a recent election

TRANSPORTATION OF TROOPS —Some idea of the business done by the railroads in the transportation service may be formed by the fact stated to us by Capt Camp of the Quartermaster's Department that during the fiscal year of 1862 no less than 6 0,000 soldiers passed through the only railroad depot in Washington

ALVA GOULD, one of the original locators of the Gould & Curry claim has commenced a suit against the present owners of that claim for the recovery of 75 feet of their ground which he claims is his by right of location he never having sold his interest in said ground, but was deprived of it by fraud

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 7.

NEW YORK, Oct 7—The Herald's Washington dispatch states that no arrangement had been made for the release of officers held prisoners of war at Richmond. The captures in the battle near Chattanooga have increased the prisoners in Libby Prison to over 1 000 While the rebels are [illegible] every one of their officers and men exchanged and putting them in the field again they still hold our officers and privates and civilians

Deserters from the army continue to cross the Potomac below Alexandria notwithstanding the vigilance of the flotilla

Dispatches from the Army of the Potomac Oct 4th, say about 5 o'clock to day the rebels threw some shells into our camp on the extreme left from the direction of Summerville Ford; no attention was paid to them

Washington dispatches state that a colored barber direct from Richmond where he has been in daily contact with the leading rebels says the battle of Chickamauga is not considered in Richmond as a success He says Richmond can be easily captured Army officers frequently said in his hearing it would be abandoned should the Army of the Potomac advance in force People are daily sending their effects South in anticipation of an attack Last week the State Guard was called out to suppress a threatened bread riot Hundreds of Government employees with their wives and wives of soldiers, assembled in front of the State Capitol armed with clubs and missiles, demanding of the authorities relief for starving children An extensive riot was prevented by the prompt action of the State Guard, and promises of State authorities.

Lee's force is between Rapidan and Petersburg, only 30,000 strong

NEW YORK, Oct 7—A Newbern letter of Sept 29th to the Herald says a few days since Capt Shaffer of the 85th New York destroyed the rebel salt works at Nag's Head, without opposition

Major General Peck and staff started a few days ago on an inspection of the defenses at Washington, Plymouth, Roanoke Island, Hatteras etc

A Paris letter to the World says the pirate Florida is being repaired by Government engineers and laborers at Government docks When the Florida goes to sea she will salute the French flag. It is already publicly stated that the Confederate salute will be officially responded to Three Federal men of war are on the watch outside. Chances of a battle are imminent That the Florida will leave Brest this week is untrue, she will leave the dock but not the port Meantime she may be joined by one or two powerful colleagues

GOING EAST.—The distinguished Catholic missionary, Father De Smet, left on the steamer last night. EXPORTS.—The steamer Brother Jonathan, which sailed for San Francisco via Victoria, last night, took out the following freight: 1,356 boxes apples, 53 packages eggs, 19 packages butter, 9 cases bacon, 28 bales wool, 42 hides, 11 coops chickens and 40 quarters beef.

EUROPEAN CAP.—Mr. Butler, of the Pioneer Hat Store, yesterday, received a case of military caps, which he had ordered for the "Washington Guards;" they are the U. S. Regulation Fatigue Cap, with the letter B and a trumpet in front.

MR. EDITOR: In the published proceedings of the "active" common council, I observe an ordinance laying a special tax of five mills on the dollar to pay the indebtness of the city, &c. STOCK JOBBING AND FAILURES IN NEW YORK.—The New York correspondent of the Call says, under date of Sept. 27th:

Phew! what a grand smash we have had in stocks the past week. I told you in my last I expected soon to witness such a catastrophe. The "bulls" had been so successful for weeks and weeks in forcing funds up, and fancies leaping worthless stocks upwards at the rate of 20 per cent. a day, and making instantaneous fortunes for bold speculators, that they had fairly got the public mind madly insane with a passion for stock gambling. Everybody rushed in to buy, who had a dollar to spare, or had credit enough to raise one. Outsiders, who are called "innocents" in Wall street, bought up hundreds of shares at the instigation of their broker "friends," putting up as a "margin" all the funds they could raise, and leaving the stock as collateral security. Harlem stock, not worth a dollar, in fact, run up to one hundred and eighty. Southern Michigan and Northern Indiana ran up from four dollars a share to one hundred and fourteen. Millionaires were becoming as abundant as blackberries. But last week came the crisis. On Monday stocks were weak; on Tuesday they were shaky; Wednesday they went down "keralap." Harlem fell sixty-four a share; Michigan tumbled twenty-eight a share—in two days. All the "margins" were swallowed up. Thousands of persons were completely ruined. Hundreds were suddenly reduced to worse than beggary. It was a regular "slaughter of the innocents." So much for stock-gambling.

Some of these people who had become rich so unexpectedly in stocks, had taken elegant brown-stone mansions, and set up carriages, in which they turned out in grand style every afternoon, at the Central Park. Nothing was so gorgeous as their turn-outs. They took the shine out of all competitors; and as for diamonds, how their parvenue wives glistened with gems from Tiffany's, from Ball, Black & Co.'s, and so on! Last week ended their short career of glory. Brown-stone houses must be abandoned. The red flag of the auctioneer is at their doors selling off their extravagant furniture, carriages and horses. Instead of attracting all eyes at the Park, they are being scrutinized by the crowd at Leeds', where the man with the hammer is saying: "Going, going—and am I offered no more than this for so dashing and superb a turn-out! Going! did I hear a bid over in the corner, sir? Going for only such a ridiculous sum! Going—gone! Mr. John Smith takes the carriage and horses; and Mr. Smith, you have got a great bargain. May you hold on to it a little longer than the former purchaser." Such is life.

U. S. SUPREME COURT.—The Rochester Express says it has private information that the whole Bench of the United States Supreme Court, Judge Taney included, have agreed to the opinion that "the States in rebellion have lost their rights as States, and must come into the Union simply as Territories subject to the General Government and entitled to its protection; and that new State organizations may be formed by the people under the Constitution and laws of Congress, as in the case of other Territories; but the old States cannot come into the Union with their present organisation and officers."

Diarrhœa and Pain in the Bowels Cured.
CARTHAGE, O., Nov. 25, 1853.
DR. O. R. BAKER—Much Esteemed Friend: I have had a severe attack of Diarrhœa, attended with griping pains, and was reduced very low. I tried many different medicines, but all to no purpose, until I got a bottle of your PAIN PANACEA, and commenced its use. The first dose put a quietus on the griping pains, and I had not used two twenty-five cent bottles before I was entirely cured. I also recommended it to a friend, who was attacked with cramp colic, and suffering with excruciating pains, and three doses entirely cured him.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO:—I have found DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS one of the best medicines for DYSPEPSIA that I ever used. I have been afflicted with the disease for more than six months, and my victuals disturbed my stomach, often to such a degree as to cause vomiting. I was most of the time costive. I found that the Pills kept my bowels open, without griping or pain. I have actually gained, since using them, in weight—being ten pounds heavier than when I commenced. In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Yes, I Would the War were Over

BY ALICE HAWTHORNE

Yes, I would the war were over,
Would the cruel work were [illegible]
With my country undivided
And the battle fought and won
Let the contest end forever,
Be decided by the sword
For the war shall not be [illegible]
Till the Union is restored

CHORUS

Yes, I would the war were over
Would the cruel work were done
With my country still united,
And the [illegible] Stars in one

Dead upon the field of battle
Husbands [illegible] brothers lie
Wives are waiting—[illegible]
Looking for the [illegible]
Far away from home [illegible]
Many a noble [illegible]
Looking for thy bill [illegible]
The [illegible]

Yes I would the war were ended
And the cruel struggle [illegible]
But [illegible]
And our country as before
Peace in [illegible]
Though its joys are [illegible]
Still we'll battle for our nation
Whatsoe'er it yet may cost

WEST VIRGINIA —The Parkersburg Gazette of August 13th, has the following glowing account of the natural resources and attractions of this free State

The largest portion of the State of West Virginia is diversified with hills and much of it is mountainous but nearly all is adapted to some species of profitable agriculture Yet the main value of this large tract of country will ultimately be found in its extraordinary mineral wealth and its capacity for manufacturing In proportion to its territory it is superior, as an agricultural field to Massachusetts or Western Pennsylvania—for all purposes of manufacture, we far surpass either. With all the water power either of them possess, our climate gives us better use of the power, and it has besides, its streams the most abundant supplies of coal for steam power, and iron in immense quantities

But the great wealth of this State is in its minerals, which are abundant beyond conception. The product of petroleum oil as a source of wealth is scarcely yet in infancy Wells are often bored yielding from from one to two hundred barrels a day, and the oil is daily sold upon our wharf at three dollars a barrel, the cost of which with the present low water, is not over four dollars A well is now equal to a mint that makes its own gold There is in the Eastern markets a demand still greater than the supply A question arises in some minds whether the supply of this oil will continue It is inexhaustible, and all the evidences bear us out in the hypothesis that it is neither an animal nor [illegible] product but formed of interior gasses as coal is formed, constantly being upheaved to the surface by the action of these gasses and slowly discharging through the rock into fissures and there lying until the pump comes for it It is in the power of the pump to raise faster than the supply but our whole earth for a hundred miles around us is filled with those seams of oil and while one is being exhausted another will be filled

Undoubtedly oil is among our richest sources of mineral wealth, but there are others of no small magnitude In the vicinity of the oil wells lead has been discovered, evidently in sufficient quantities for profitable mining The ore has been analyzed by competent men, and yields thirty per cent of pure lead This is equal to the Galena mines, and we have no doubt they will be profitably worked We have a specimen of this ore at our office which can be seen by the curious or interested at any time

There are thousands of acres of iron ore within forty miles of here, that is as rich as can well be worked, yet there is not a furnace in the whole territory It would have forever remained so had we not been relieved from the oppressions of Eastern Virginia Professor Rogers was employed eight years in a geological survey of the State and what is now West Virginia proved so rich in minerals that the contemptible politicians of the East refused to publish his report because the West would thus become known and populous, taking the power from the East

AN ELOQUENT EXTRACT —Hon C P Johnson, of St Louis, at a recent emancipation convention in Missouri, closed his speech as follows

"Citizens of Northwest Missouri, be ye of good cheer for the day of the resumption of your rights is near at hand! You have fought faithfully The loyal radicals of Missouri have fought faithfully so far in the great conflict for the preservation of the Republic Missouri has furnished her full quota in the hero bands that have shed such lustre upon our nationality And when fighting the enemy in the field, you have not forgotten to fight him at home Let us still continue to do it War upon all politics that render the least sympathy to the damnable institution of slavery—that dares to look to the least compromise with the demon cause of all our woes And to day I proclaim that the Radical Union party of the State is in Sympathy, heartfelt sympathy with the true loyalists of the country Perhaps a few people under the lead of wily politicians do not yet appreciate the fact of the justness of your position, but the great, heaving, throbbing, mourning, hopeful, freedom loving heart of the North is with you, and cries "Blessed" And standing together as the grand army of patriots do and will on a radical platform, if you please and sweeping away the last vestiges of a long accumulated and hard crusted conservatism, we will march on to the acme of a great success—the destruction of our foes in arms—the firm establishment of a nobler nationality than the world has yet witnessed upon the basis of universal freedom—the extirpation once, now and forever of the institution of slavery In such success, the generation will be worthy of a great reward and they will receive it Proud, indeed, will be the name of American "Blessed thrice blessed be the heroes of the Republic of America!" will be the shout and song of millions That long and innumerable caravan coming up from the dim womb of the future, in solemn march on to eternity, will bow at the shrine of the age with the devotion of the wandering weary pilgrim at the tomb of our Savior The shout and meed of praise will go up from true spirits in the heart of Austria—on the banks of the Rhine—in the gorges of the Caucassus and Tyrol—beneath the sunny skies of Italy—from the very bogs of Ireland—in the streets of London—on the shores of the Carribean—in the Savannahs of the South—at the home of the negro—and the palace of the Czar—in the solemn stanzas of an epic deep and heart-felt beyond the expression of man and worthy of a Heavenly lyre in the Courts of the Great King"

GRAPE CANISTER AND SHRAPNELL —Grape consists of nine shot arranged in three layers, which vary in size according to the calibre of the gun, they are held together by two plates of about 1 1-4 inches less diameter than the gun two rings a bolt and a nut The canvas bag arrangement is too old for this war, it is not so simple or durable and has not been used for years

Canister for a gun contains twenty seven small cast iron balls, arranged in four layers, the to[illegible] f six, the remainder of seven each For a howitzer it contains forty eight small iron balls in four layers of twelve each If the same (this) you will see that the balls for canister are in a tin cylinder closed at the bottom by a thick cast iron plate or a wooden sabot and at the top by a sheet iron plate with a handle attached the interstices between the balls are closely packed with sawdust to prevent crowding when the piece is fired

Shrapnell consists of a very thin shell which is filled with musket balls the interstices are then filled by pouring in melted sulphur a hole is then bored through the mass of sulphur and bullets to receive the bursting charge

Now to explain the difference between a "shrapnell or spherical case" and a shell The destructive force of a shrapnell is what it receives from the charge in the gun the powder in the shrapnell being only to break the envelope and spread the balls they still moving forward by force of the impulse they receive from the charge in the gun A shell is made very much thicker than the envelope of a shrapnell and is nearly filled with powder and will do great execution if it explodes on the ground it having destructive qualities in itself aside from the discharge of the gun A shrapnell shell has only half the charge of powder that a shell proper has thus a 24 pounder shrapnell contains 175 musket balls 6 ounces of powder and weighs 22 7 pounds A 24 pounder shell has 12 ounces of powder and weighs 19 [illegible] pounds A 6 pounder shrapnell has 38 musket balls and 2 ounces of powder

WEAKNESS OF THE VIRGINIA REBEL ARMY — A correspondent with the Army of the Potomac expresses the opinion that Gen Lee's force has been badly weakened to reinforce Beauregard at Charleston

The rebel army is either badly shattered or demoralized, or weakened by sending reinforcements to Charleston Vicksburg has been a cruel lesson to their untutored hearts It was long before they could see the slightest encouragement for the imperturbable and indefatigable Grant Even after the rebel Gibraltar of the West has surrendered they sneered at the foolhardiness of the Yankees Already they grow alarmed for Charleston for that lost, surely he who despairs of the Confederacy is pardonable The energy the es[illegible] the blood of the Southern Confederacy will be taxed to the very utmost ere they give up to desecration the city which John C Calhoun honored as his home

While the Masonic fraternity were en route for Greenfield Mass, the other day an inquisitive countryman, at one of the stations after eyeing the Knights Templars for a few moments, inquired with the greatest concern, "whether all them brigadier generals was goin home on a furlough?"
